

YATES COUNTY

TITLE VI POLICY STATEMENT

As a recipient of federal and state funds, Yates County is subject to the requirements and provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. The provisions include but are not limited to, prohibiting discrimination on the grounds of race, color or national origin (being denied the benefits of, or being otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity administered by federal or state assisted programs, services, or activities). Non-compliance with this mandate can affect federal financial assistance.

The Civil Rights Act of 1987 broadened the scope of Title VI coverage by expanding the definition of terms "programs or activities" to include all programs or activities of Federal Aid recipients, sub-recipients, and consultants, whether such programs and activities are federally assisted or not.

Yates County assures that every effort will be made to ensure nondiscrimination in all of its programs and activities, whether those programs and activities are federally funded or not. Yates County's Highway Superintendent is responsible for monitoring the Title VI activities for Yates County.

Anyone who has a discrimination complaint against Yates County with regard to transportation services should complete a complaint form available at the Yates County Highway Department Office. Complaints should be made in writing and mailed or brought to:

Yates County Highway Department
Attn. Highway Superintendent
939 Rte. 14A
Penn Yan, NY 14527

YATES COUNTY TITLE VI PROGRAM

As a recipient of federal and state funds, Yates County is subject to the requirements and provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. The provisions include but not limited to, prohibiting discrimination on the grounds of race, color or national origin (being denied the benefits of, or being otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity administered by federal or state assisted programs, services, or activities). Non-compliance with this mandate can affect federal financial assistance.

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin in programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Specifically, Title VI provides that "no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance" (42 U.S.C. Section 2000d).

The Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987 broadened the scope of Title VI coverage by expanding the definition of terms "programs or activities" to include all programs or activities of Federal Aid recipients, sub-recipients, and consultants, whether such programs and activities are federally assisted or not.

Yates County assures every effort will be made to ensure nondiscrimination in all of its programs and activities, whether those programs and activities are federally funded or not. Yates County's Highway Superintendent is responsible for monitoring the Title VI activities for Yates County.

Yates County is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, or denied the benefits of its services on the basis of race, color, or national origin, as protected by Title VI in Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Circular 4702.1.B.

Public Notification Process

Title VI Information Dissemination

Title VI information shall be prominently and publicly displayed in Yates County facilities. The name of the Title VI coordinator is available on the Yates County website at www.yatescounty.org. Additional information relating to nondiscrimination obligation can be obtained from the Yates County Highway Superintendent or his/her designee.

Title VI information shall be disseminated to Yates County employees annually, via a payroll staffer. This form reminds employees of the Yates County Policy statement, and of their Title VI responsibilities in their daily work and duties.

Title VI Complaint Procedures

How to file a Title VI Complaint?

The complainant may file a signed, written complaint up to thirty (30) days from the date of the alleged discrimination. The complaint should include the following information:

- Name of complainant, mailing address, and how to contact the complainant (i.e. telephone number, e-mail address, etc.).
- How, when, where, and why the complainant believes he or she was discriminated against. The complainant shall include the location, names, and contact information of any witnesses.
- Other information that is deemed significant by the complainant.

The Title VI Complaint Form (attached) should be used to submit the complaint information. The complaint may be filed in writing to Yates County at the following address:

Yates County Highway Department
Attn. Highway Superintendent
939 Rte. 14A
Penn Yan, NY 14527
315-531-3200

What happens to the complaint once it is submitted?

All complaints alleging discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in a service or benefit provided by Yates County will be directly addressed by Yates County. Yates County shall also provide appropriate assistance to complainants, including those persons with disabilities, or who are limited in their ability to communicate in English. Additionally, Yates County shall make every effort to address all complaints in an expeditious and thorough manner.

A letter acknowledging receipt of a complaint will be mailed within seven days to the complainant. Please note that in responding to any requests for additional information, a complainant's failure to provide the requested information may result in the administrative closure of the complaint.

How will the complainant be notified of the outcome of the complaint?

Yates County shall send a final written response letter to the complainant. If a complaint is not substantiated the complainant will be advised of his or her right to:

1. File a complaint externally with the US Department of Transportation and/or the Federal Transit Administration and/or
2. File a complaint with the New York State Division of Human Rights.

In addition to the complaint process above, a complainant may file a Title VI complaint with the following offices:
